4. ARAMCO, al-Nadwa, al-Bilad and al-Madina newspapers took up during the last week the news of alleged attacks on Saudi children in the Eastern Province by American teenage children of Aramco's employees. The newspapers decried the hush-up tactics of the Saudi authorities in connection with these cases. They asked official assurances that should such attacks continue, justice will take its course irrespective of the nationality of the attackers. (UNCLASSIFIED)

World News

1. U.S. Presidential Campaign. Reports based on news agencies appeared in the Saudi press expressing surprise at Goldwater's success so far, and still giving President Johnson 64 percent popularity in the U.S. (UNCLASSIFIED)

One newspaper, al-Nadwa, of Mecca, opines that Goldwater's election as U.S. President would worsen US-Arab relations because Goldwater is "a former Jew and a present Zionist." (UNCLASSIFIED)
